You appear on our books as a stockholder of the Gulf Coast Development Company. Our stock book was burned in a fire that destroyed the Secretary's office in this city last year, and we now have no record of the number of your certificate of stock, and date thereof. Will you please fill out the blank below, and return this sheet to me as soon as possible, that I may enter this information upon our books?

Date certificate	No. thereof	No. shares	Do you still own it?
